SCREEN MAGAZINE #69

1 ✓ Vol 1 ✓

If cleanliness has anything to do with the war, the Sammys are going to put it over the Kaiser in jig time, with their marvelous traveling laundry shown in Screen Magazine No. 69. May Irwin, the famous comedienne, and one of the best known cooks in the world, has enlisted her talent in the shape of a conversation loaf, which saves forty per cent flour, and requires no kneading. An interesting chapter is the way John L. Kuser trains Russian wolfhounds in America. There is an animated interview on old age with Marion Harland, the famous writer, who is eighty seven years old and has just completed her fortieth book. Willie Hopkins contributes a "Miracle In Mud," called "An Eye-ful of Ears."
